The Washington Field Office has advised that in connection with another investigation they had occasion to review records pertaining to the WPA which are in storage at the HCUA. It was stated that these stored records contain a great mass of unindexed and unclassified material in four packing cases concerning the WPA activities in New York City. This material is alleged to be identical with the material subpoenaed by the Dies Committee in 1940 and 1941 during their investigation of subversive activities of the WPA in New York City. This material contains some 700 case folders containing allegations against employees of different projects of the WPA in New York City. It was also stated that there is nothing in the HCUA indices which makes any reference to this material and that it is therefore not known whether there are any references to Anna Rosenberg contained therein.

A teletype has also been received from the Philadelphia office to the effect that SA Robert W. Holmes of that office has advised that he is a classmate and personal friend of Hugh F. McKenna, who worked directly under Rosenberg when she was director of Region No. 2, New York State of the Social Security Board in the late 30's and early 40's. It was suggested that McKenna might be interviewed for information concerning Rosenberg.

Recommendations:

With reference to the HCUA material above, it is recommended that it not be reviewed at this time; first, as there has been no allegation or indication that there is information in these files pertaining to Anna M. Rosenberg; secondly, as such a review would be strictly in the nature of a fishing expedition and would consume considerable agent time; and thirdly, as these files were presumably reviewed by the Dies Committee at the time they were subpoenaed and records of those proceedings have been previously reviewed without any reference to Anna M. Rosenberg.

With reference to the suggestion of the Philadelphia office concerning an interview with McKenna, it is not believed necessary to talk to him at this time as his association with Rosenberg is alleged to have been in the late 30's and early 40's, which is after the pertinent period of her alleged association with the John Reed Club.

Reference New York teletype to Albany dated December 14, 1950.

Mrs. VILLA ZALLA, 17 East State Street, Johnstown, New York, wife of the owner of the Strand Theater in Johnstown, advised she does not recall ever having met or seen the applicant. She said she has read newspaper and magazine articles concerning the applicant and therefore believes she would remember having met her. Mrs. ZALLA advised that she cannot remember having met anyone by the name of ANNA ROSENBERG.

She stated that she had never belonged to the John Reed Club and to her knowledge never attended any meetings of the club. She advised, however, that about 1934 or 1935 she had attended political discussions at a hall on Fourteenth Street near Sixth Avenue in New York City. She attended with her husband, at that time BRADLEY OUTLER. Mrs. ZALLA stated this might possibly have been the John Reed Club.

Mrs. ZALLA stated that the people at these discussions were merely faces to her and that she does not recall the names of any of the people who attended.

Mr. Ernest Cuneo called me from New York on December 11th and pointed out that he felt a very delicate situation was developing in connection with the Anna Rosenberg case. He felt that a very shrewd move was under way to make the FBI the goat and to put the FBI in the position of the accuser. As a matter of fact, he knew the big forces were being moved into action and there was a move under way to investigate the investigator.

He further said he had this from the "horse's mouth:" General Marshall is burned up over the Anna Rosenberg situation; that a pilot committee is active on behalf of Anna Rosenberg and is coaching different individuals to help out, and that he has learned from them of their opposition. He felt we should be very cautious to be certain the record is objective and let the record speak for itself because that will be the best answer. I thanked him for calling.

 SPECIAL INQUIRY

Reference is made to the communication from Dr. MARJORIE SHEARON to the Bureau dated December 14, 1950.

This is to advise that Dr. MARJORIE SHEARON, 9127 Jones Mill Road, Chevy Chase, Maryland, appeared at the Washington Field Office on the afternoon of December 15, 1950, and turned over another copy of her "Challenge to Socialism" together with photostatic copies of a newspaper ad sponsoring President Truman's Health Plan, published in 1945, a letter to Senator FORREST C. CONNELL, dated April 12, 1946, on the letterhead of the Committee for the Nations Health, and a letter on the same letterhead dated August 1, 1949. The photostatic material is to support the information which she has set forth in her paper "Challenge To Socialism".

During her visit Dr. SHEARON furnished no new information and indicated that she has no personal knowledge of Dr. ANNA ROSENBERG, but that her information has been obtained from her research on the matter from other sources. She pointed out that the Armed Services Committee went astray in its hearings in trying to prove that ANNA ROSENBERG is a Communist. Dr. SHEARON feels that from her association with individuals of "Red" taint that she could not help but be a Communist. She informed that when she tried to show this association to the Armed Services Committee it did not go across because the members of the Committee were not familiar with the names of individuals whom she mentioned and who have been known in the past to have Communistic sympathies.

Hush-Hush Hearings on Defense Appointment Of Anna M. Rosenberg Continue This Week

Anna M. Rosenberg as Assistant Secretary of Defense on the staff of General Marshall.

Witnesses opposing Mrs. Rosenberg's appointment were heard all day December 8, 11, and 12. Mr. Ralph De Sola, a former Communist, testified for three and one-half hours that he had met Mrs. Rosenberg at Communist meetings. Subsequent witnesses either did not support Mr. De Sola's testimony or contradicted it. The net result, at this time, appears to be a draw. Mr. Freedman, a retired businessman of New York, testified at length against Mrs. Rosenberg after a prolonged effort on the part of some Committee members to prove that Mr. Freedman is Anti-Semitic. He himself is Jewish, but he has opposed Marxist Jews and Communism. Witnesses from Counter-Attack, the anti-Communist paper published in New York City, testified on December 15.

Press and public have been excluded from all hearings. The veil of secrecy has hung heavy around the Armed Services Committee room out of respect for Mrs. Rosenberg. The public interest might have been better served had the press been admitted.

Mrs. Rosenberg has made a great point about mistaken identity, but has proved nothing. When she was given a transcript of her testimony, prior to publication, she took it to the Adjutant General's Office in National Defense, according to a reliable source, doctored her sworn statement, handed it in, and it was printed. When the committee discovered this, they restored the original wording and had the testimony reprinted. Nice gal, Anna! See her alibi, p. 10 of testimony.

Star Chamber Actions In Armed Services Committee Strike New Low With Morse's Aid

On December 7, 1950, the Editor requested to be heard by the Senate Armed Services Committee. She testified on December 12 after spending 5 solid weeks collating documentary material relating to the appointment of Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg. The Editor needed 2 hours for her presentation. Before she could get into her testimony, Senator Morse began his attack, obviously in retaliation for the Editor's release of May 11, 1950, on the Senator's political career. Behind closed doors, with the press excluded, Senator Morse endeavored by questions and innuendo to imply that the Editor was unreliable, mentally unbalanced, and professionally incompetent. The slanderous material which Senator Morse, hiding behind his Senatorial immunity, read into the record smacks of the writings of William G. Reidy, formerly on the staff of the Committee for the Nation's Health. It was presumably expected the Editor would attack the CNH, as she did, and therefore a barrage of innuendo was laid down in advance to discredit her. Reidy is on Labor Committee staff.

Senator Morse asked further if the Editor had ever had a nervous breakdown, been in a mental institution, consulted a psychiatrist, or been "rescued" by two patrolmen (presumably in 1934) after an attempt to commit suicide. To each of these questions the Editor answered under oath with an emphatic "No!" She refused, however, to defend herself. It is an old and obvious technique to attack a witness outrageously in order to elicit a defense and cut off testimony. The Editor netted 35-40 minutes and was then stopped. She was told she might submit additional material before December 14 at 10:00 a.m., which is too short a time for preparation.

Most Solid Evidence In Rosenberg Case is Interlocking of CNH And Red Front Groups

mendously important appointment because it gives into the hands of one person extraordinary authority over the Nation's manpower—including professional personnel, such as physicians and atomic scientists.

We do not make our major case against Mrs. Rosenberg on the ground of whether or not she was a member of the John Reed Club. We believe there is far stronger evidence against Mrs. Rosenberg to be found in the associations she had through the Committee for the Nation's Health. This evidence can be documented and there is no alibing out of it. We proceed to give it for the benefit of the members of the Senate.

Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg, now holding the interim appointment as Assistant Secretary of Defense, was a charter member of the Committee for the Nation's Health, which was incorporated on February 23, 1946. The Editor has not finished her analysis of the subversive organizations to which the Committee for the Nation's Health, Inc., was linked via interlocking directorates. Thus far we can report 26 interlocked subversive fronts:

American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born
American Council for a Democratic Greece
American Labor Party
American Slav Congress
American League Against War
California Labor School
China Aid Society
Civil Rights Committee
Closer Cooperation with Soviet Russia
Committee for Democratic Far Eastern Policy
Independent Citizens Committee for Arts, Sciences, etc.
International Workers Order
Medical Bureau and North American Committee to Aid Spain
National Council of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions (N.Y.C., Mar. 25-27, 1949)

National Federation for Constitutional Liberties
Open Letter for Harry Bridges
Progressive-Citizens of America

Subversive Citations For Members of CNH

We have previously pointed out that the charter membership of the Committee for the Nation's Health, Inc., comprised 166 persons. Of these, at least 92, or 55 per cent, had subversive records. That is, they were cited by the House Un-American Activities Committee for subversive actions or connections. The following members of the Committee for the Nation's Health, Inc., have been affiliated with the specified number of Communist-front organizations, according to the House Un-American Activities Committee Review of the Scientific and Cultural Conference for World Peace Arranged by the National Council of the Arts, Sciences, and Professions and Held in New York City, March 25, 26, and 27, 1949. (Union Calendar No. 731, House Report No. 1954, 81st Congress, 2nd Sess., 1950)

Mrs. Rosenberg should be cross-examined regarding her activities and associations, especially in the 1930's. We believe she would not have been so surrounded with Reds and Red sympathizers if she had not some sympathy with their philosophy. She should be questioned about her friendship with Sidney Hillman, the NC-PAC chairman who in the 1920's had Lenin's blessing. What of Michael J. Quill and Julius Emspak? What of Communist Richard O. Boyer, p. 4 below?

House Un-American Activities Committee Citations on Board And Other CNH Officers For at least 3 years—1947, 1948, and 1949—Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg was a member of the Board of Directors of the Committee for the Nation's Health, Inc. During part of that period, according to the 1950-51 Who's Who in America, she was a member of the Executive Committee of CNH. She presumably knew and was brought into close contact with the 9 honorary vice-chairmen and the 34 other board members. We believe the number of persons in this total of 43 CNH officials who have been cited by the House Un-American Activities Committee for subversive connections or activities (indicated below by*) is exceptionally high.

It is perfectly true that a person may be listed by the House Un-American Activities Committee without there being any sinister implication. Citations must be analyzed, for they are of varying significance. In the case of the members of the Committee for the Nation's Health, Inc., it seems to us there is significance in the fact that 55 per cent of the charter members and 50 per cent of the officials have been cited by the House Un-American Activities Committee. At least 17 members of Hillman's 1944 Communist-front NC-PAC were CNH members.

Rosenberg Testimony On Consumers National Federation Fantastic And Incredulous

In the light of the composition of the Committee for the Nation's Health, the following facts take on new significance. Mrs. Rosenberg testified under oath she could not remember belonging to the Consumers National Federation which had been identified by Earl Browder in 1939 as a "transmission belt." The organization was controlled by 5 known Communists. In December, 1937, this organization arranged a conference. Among the sponsors were listed the names of 12 persons who later became members of CNH, namely:

Roger Baldwin	Paul U. Kellogg
Stuart Chase	Arthur P. McNulty
Evans Clark	Lillian Poses
Mary Dublin (Keyserling)	Kingsley Roberts
Herman A. Gray	Anna M. Rosenberg
Helen Hall	Mary K. Simkovitch

Now it is interesting to note that Lillian Poses later became Mrs. Rosenberg's legal assistant at the New York regional office of the Social Security Board. It is also interesting to note that in 1947 Mary Dublin Keyserling, Lillian Poses, and Anna M. Rosenberg were members of the Board of Directors of the Committee for the Nation's Health, Inc. On the board at that time was Mr. Samuel I. Rosenman. Yet in the face of all these facts, Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg, present Assistant Secretary of Defense, has stated under oath it was some other Anna M. Rosenberg who sponsored the conference of the Red Consumers National Federation. A dozen of her friends were sponsors, but some other Anna M. Rosenberg not herself, was with her friends, according to Mrs. Rosenberg's sworn testimony.

Also present among the sponsors was Jacob Fisher who was singled out by the Harness subcommittee of the House because of his alleged subversive activities. He has for years been on the staff of I. S. Falk in the Social Security Administration working on social security legislation. Fisher has his own series of subversive citations but was white-washed by the SSA.

Pity America! Members of the Armed Services Committee seemed totally unfamiliar with names of notorious communists and fronters. The committee has concentrated on trying to prove Mrs. Rosenberg was not a Communist. Is that the only question to be answered about a candidate for high office? The committee has missed the boat. Sitting as judge and jury it is in a fix.

Infamous Communist
Wrote Laudatory
Article on Anna M.

In the New Yorker Magazine of April 23, 1938; there was an article on Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg entitled "Middlewoman." It was written by Richard O. Boyer, an infamous Communist. The article was highly laudatory. He referred to her as "one of Hillman's best friends" (p. 29). He also spoke of "... Anna, who worked with the [American Labor] Party in the last campaign ..." (p. 29).

The House Un-American Activities Committee in its Review of the Scientific and Cultural Conference for World Peace cited above, p. 2, col. 2, cites Boyer 20 times. It says:

"A member of the Communist Party struck the main chord of the Conference in his outright advocacy of civil disobedience. Chosen for this role was Richard Boyer, who spoke openly as a member of the Communist Party." (P. 12.)

In the same document we find this statement:

"Of the over 500 sponsors of the Scientific and Cultural Conference, at least 22 are either avowed members of the Communist Party, United States of America, or their membership cards or party affiliations have been made part of a sworn public record." In this list of 22 Communists is included the name of Richard O. Boyer, p. 36.

What was the woman who now aspires to be Assistant Secretary of Defense doing with Richard O. Boyer? Did she furnish an interview as the basis of the article? Is this article of any significance? Consider, for instance, whether you were having a Communist writer publish a laudatory article about you in 1938? Were Communists writing laudatory articles about members of the U. S. Senate in 1938? Why was Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg selected for this "honor"?

If it is true she worked for the American Labor Party in 1937, what conclusion can be drawn? The House Un-American Activities Committee in Appendix IX, 1944, states:

"In New York City the initiative of the movement for the establishment of the American Labor Party was supplied by Sidney Hillman ... (New York Times, July 6, pp. 1, 3; August 22, 1936, p. 16)". Hillman it will be recalled, went to Russia in 1922 to organize the clothing industry of that country with Lenin's backing. He has been accused repeatedly of having been a Communist.

Communist Reported
Anna M. Rosenberg
Worked for American Labor Party in 1937

The House Un-American Activities Committee continues: "While the Communist Party, as such was never invited to join this movement, the Communists were represented therein ... and the Communist Party gave its open support." (App. IX, p. 1495.)

Israel Amter, State Chairman and Charles Krumbein, New York State Secretary of the Communist Party, stated in the Daily Worker Oct. 6, 1939, p. 6, that "The Communist Party as an organization has supported A.L.P. candidates in the elections."

In the pamphlet The Crisis in the Communist Party, it is stated: "The whole membership [of the Communist Party] has been instructed to join the American Labor Party as a body. This enrollment, members had been told, was to be completed by the first week of March 1937." (P. 14.) Communist Boyer states Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg worked with the ALP at this time.

Did Anna M. Arrange
Appointment of Julius Emspak, Communist, to FRD Labor War Board?

The New York Times of February 5, 1942, page 30, column 6, reported that President Roosevelt had appointed a 6-man "Labor War Board," with 3 representatives from the AFL and 3 from the CIO. One of the CIO representatives was Julius Emspak, sec.-treasurer of the United Electrical, Radio, and Machine Workers Union. Emspak has been cited as a dangerous Communist.

The writer Josef Israels II in an article on Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg entitled "Mrs. Fix-It" in the Saturday Evening Post of October 16, 1943, stated that this Labor Committee was set up partly at the suggestion of Mrs. Rosenberg. She was named secretary of the committee by President Roosevelt. It would be interesting to know whether she played a part in selecting Communist Emspak for the "Labor War Board." (See House Un-American Activities Committee Hearings Regarding Infiltration of Labor Unions, pts. 1 and 2, for August 9, 10, and 11, 1949, and December 5 and 6, 1949. Also list of Communist officers of labor unions, showing Julius Emspak, UERMWA-CIO, (100 Things You Should Know About Communism and Labor, 1948, p. 17. Also Com. Report 1311, 1944.)

Dear Friend:

This is an urgent appeal for immediate action. We ask you to send letters and telegrams to your Senators and Congressman today to meet a sudden emergency.

Congress is about to vote on the proposal to establish a U. S. Department of Welfare -- that is, to give the existing Federal Security Agency the full status of a Federal department. This is proposed by President Truman on the recommendation of the Hoover Commission, and has long been needed. Mr. Hoover has personally advocated it.

The American Medical Association is all-out to kill this measure. Its $3,500,000 lobby has thrown its full weight into this issue. Reason: Oscar Ewing, head of Federal Security Agency, is the chief administration spokesman in favor of national health insurance. AMA's strategy is to mark up a first-inning score of one to nothing against national health insurance by defeating the Welfare Department proposal. AMA hopes it will swing many doubtful or borderline votes when the main issue comes up.

AMA is willing to sacrifice a needed Department of Welfare for the sake of defeating national health insurance. It is up to us -- up to YOU -- to do everything possible to prevent an AMA victory in this first round.

You can come through with your part by sending wires or letters to your Senators and Congressman today, urging them to vote for the President's Reorganization Plan Number One, to establish the Department of Welfare. Tell them if they favor a separate Department of Health, they can take that up later. The Department of Welfare need not and should not hinge on this question.

The Department of Welfare proposal is supported by the Administration, the American Public Health Association, Council on Education, A.F.L., C.I.O., Machinists, Railroad Brotherhoods and almost all groups except organized medicine. Join forces with us. Send those telegrams or letters today! The opposition is formidable. The measure needs a strong demonstration of support from across the country. There is not a day to lose!

Sincerely yours,

Chat Paterson

Dear Senator:

We should like to acquaint you with the COMMITTEE FOR THE NATION'S HEALTH established to promote a comprehensive health program. The physicians and laymen who joined in organizing this Committee are convinced that the urgent unmet medical needs of the people of this country must be met by a national health insurance system, supplemented by payments from general revenues. We believe that there should be decentralized administration of services, free choice of doctors by patients and professional freedom for physicians.

The enclosed endorsement of the President's health program was prepared and published last December. Its signers have since formed themselves into this Committee.

The Committee endorses the Wagner-Murray-Dingell Bill (S-1606) as incorporating most of the essential features of this proposal.

We shall be glad to furnish more information if desired about the Committee and the health program.

Very truly yours,

Reverse of Committee for Mahon's Health, Inc.,
let's head with letter to Senator Blannell

President Truman's HEALTH PLAN

would increase productivity, reduce disease, save lives.

We have read his message to Congress. We endorse it.

A National Health Plan

We have read and strongly approve President Truman's message proposing a national health program. Many messages have been sent by Presidents "on the state of the nation," but this is a message on the state of the people of this nation, the first full-length Presidential message on health ever submitted to Congress.

To be administered locally

We commend this plan for national health insurance to be administered locally, with free choice of doctor and hospitals for the people and professional freedom for physicians. This is a thoroughly American plan, consistent with our tradition of using government to aid the people in doing things for themselves. We agree with the President that voluntary health insurance will not "meet more than a fraction of our people's needs."

Not "socialized" medicine

We agree also with his statement that: "The American people are the most insurance-minded people in the world. They will not be frightened off from health insurance because opponents have misnamed it "socialized" medicine."

Federal aid through States

We support his recommendations for federal aid through the states, for the construction of hospitals, for medical research and education, for the care of the needy, and for the extension of needed preventive, maternal and child health services to every part of the country.

Legislation by Congress

We would like to see the recommendations of the message promptly carried out by Congress through legislation. This program will increase productivity, reduce disease and save lives. The income and the professional facilities of the average physician will be improved. The benefits to the health of the American people will far outweigh the costs; in fact, most of the costs are merely the regularization of existing expenditures.

We are glad that many groups, including organized labor, have already approved the principles supported by the President. We sign this endorsement as individuals.

WE URGE CONGRESS TO PROMPT ACTION

GENEVIEVE PITOT lived with MAGRAW in Greenwich Village at about the pertinent period. She will know if MAGRAW was a Communist and any connection he had with ANNA M. ROSENBERG. Her cooperation is questionable. However, she may talk as a result of their break-up.

HENRY ALSBERG was the former National Director of the Federal Writers Project, WPA, whose office was in Washington, D.C., but he frequented New York City.

ALSBERG was an associate of MAGRAW and [] in the Federal Writers Project and of the people who belonged to the JOHN REED Club, of which he could have been a member. In any case, he was responsible for many of them holding the jobs they held. ALSBERG recently put out a book, the approximate title of which is "The United States Guide" which was probably published by the Hastings House Publishers.

LOUELLA HENKLE was a very close friend of MAGRAW. She was also the secretary of ORRICK JOHNS (deceased) the New York City Director of the Federal Writers Project. She knows much about MAGRAW and lived with a TOM SPENCER (who may be deceased) who had a connection with the Federal Writers Project.

EVE EVANTOFF, now Mrs. IRA M. SEDWITZ, who resides in the Columbus Circle area, knew MAGRAW and lived in his neighborhood. At that time (about 1935) she did not know much about Communist front organizations. She was then being recruited into Party activities by means of economic assistance. She later became active in Communist front fund raising activities. In recent years she has been active in the American Labor Party.

EVANTOFF was associated with the social set of MAGRAW. She has since shown indications of concern over the possibility of being identified as a Communist and might prove to be cooperative in order to avoid it.

Her husband is an engineer who is not regularly employed and apparently has an independent source of income. It is to be noted that the current New York Telephone Directory reflects an IRA M. SEDWITZ at 101 West 60th Street, Columbus 5-5135. This is in the area described by the informant.

BEN RISKIN at about 1935 was a genuine "Communist". He left the Federal Newspaper Writers Project about 1935 or 1936 to become an editor of the United Electrical Workers, CIO publication at the union national headquarters.

He may know a great deal about this matter but probably will not talk about it unless he has had a change of ideology.

VINCENT MC HUGH is a novelist of current reputation and had many friends in the Federal Writers Project at Washington, D. C. He would have known many of the people concerned with the JOHN REED Club and knows much about it if he can be induced to talk.

The Washington Field Office on September 11, 1950 further advised that JULIUS ROSENBERG of 2100 Creston Avenue, Bronx, New York, and JULIUS ROSENBERG, 4839 47th Street, Queens, signed the 1939-1940 New York City Communist Party petitions.

Investigation at the above two residences indicated that these JULIUS ROSENBERGS have resided at their respective addresses during the past ten or more years.

Records of the Board of Elections, Borough of Manhattan, indicated that ANNA M. ROSENBERG and her husband, JULIUS ROSENBERG, have registered as being affiliated with one of the major political parties since 1933. Prior to 1936, they registered from their address at 210 West 78th Street, New York City; from 1936 through 1939, they registered from 49 East 96th Street, New York City, and from 1940 through 1949, they registered from 1136 5th Avenue, New York City.

The Washington Field Office further advised that the Civil Service Commission reports a clipping from the "Daily Worker" for September 21, 1942, states that Mrs. ANNA ROSENBERG, Regional Manpower Director, spoke at a farewell party which was given for DANIEL ALLEN, New York District Secretary-Treasurer of the State, County

Reference is also made to the "Daily Worker" for January 21, 1943 regarding ROSENBERG.

During the course of the aforementioned applicant type investigation conducted during August and September, 1950, Mr. WILLIAM SCANLAN, Investigator of the Civil Service Commission, Second Regional Office, New York City, advised SA CHARLES W. Mr. SCANLAN stated that several years ago, the files which were maintained in the New York Office were all forwarded to the Washington Office of the Civil Service Commission and no records were retained at New York City.

In reference to the above January 21, 1943, issue of the "Daily Worker" regarding ROSENBERG, it is noted that an article is reflected therein entitled, "Rally to Hit Ban on F.E.P.C. Hearing". This article stated that a protest meeting against the cancellation by the War Manpower Commissioner, PAUL V. McNUTT of the public hearings on employment discrimination in the railroad industry, was being called by the Negro Labor Victory Committee and the Peoples Committee of Greater New York.

This article further indicated that telegrams of invitations to attend the meeting were sent to several prominent people in New York City, inclusive of Mrs. ANNA ROSENBERG, Regional Director of the War Manpower Commission, (New York file 126-253).

In the last job she was responsible for organizing recreation centers for defense workers and service men.

It was further indicated that she was Labor Advisor to NELSON ROCKEFELLER, the Macy-Bamberger Stores, and I. Miller Shoe Company. Mrs. ROSENBERG'S photograph was reflected in connection with the foregoing article. (New York file 100-13515, serial 201).

In July of 1941 an Internal Security - G case was opened on one YOLANDA ANDREA FOTI, with aliases: Jolan Foti, Mrs. Jolantha Foti, Yolanda A. Foti, Yolanda Andrew Foti, Yolanda Foti, Mrs. Louis Foti, nee Bacskai.

The basis of this investigation, in part, was information received to the effect that subject was suspected of being engaged in subversive activities, and that she was suspected of pro-Nazi activities.

The files of the New York Office reflect that the foregoing allegation was not substantiated during the course of investigation.

In connection with the above, during the course of an Immigration and Naturalization Service hearing at Washington, D.C. on February 6, 1942, above FOTI, in part, advised that she was 100 percent Hungarian Jewish. FOTI indicated that she was sent to the United States by the Hungarian Red Cross; that on arrival she could not speak English, so she lived with her cousin, Mrs. ANNA ROSENBERG for ~~six~~ or seven months.

Information received from a confidential source at New Haven, who is not further identified, indicated that FOTI was born April 17, 1899, Budapest, Hungary, and that her destination in the United States was ANNA M. ROSENBERG, 49 East 96th Street, New York City. The foregoing source also advised that FOTI'S other cousin, Mrs. CLARIE VON ARNOLD resided at 1150 Park Avenue, New York City. (This Mrs. VON ARNOLD appears to be ANNA M. ROSENBERG'S sister).

Investigation conducted at Niantic, Connecticut, reflects that ELIZABETH MUNGER, Superintendent of the State Farm for Women, advised that the aforementioned YOLANDA FOTI came to her on recommendation of Judge KROSS of New York, as a volunteer from Hudson, New York, where she had been studying American Penal Institution management for several years. In part, Miss MUNGER related that FOTI, who was flighty and neurotic, had remarked that she would marry an American if she had to pick a bum off the street. FOTI indicated to Miss MUNGER that she did not want to go back to Hungary, as they would "shoot" her on sight.

The records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service at Ellis Island, New York, contained a letter from Senator ROBERT F. WAGNER dated August 18, 1941. This letter in part advised that FOTI, who at this time was doing volunteer social service work at the State Farm for Women, Goochland, Virginia, was a cousin of Mrs. ANNA M. ROSENBERG, Regional Director of the Social Security Board, 11 West 42nd Street, and that Mrs. ROSENBERG had sponsored FOTI.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York, as of December 5, 1941, reflected that ANNA M. ROSENBERG, wife of JULIUS ROSENBERG, at this time was residing at 1136 Fifth Avenue, New York City. Her former residences were given as 49 East 96th Street and 210 West 88th Street, New York City. This report further indicated that Mrs. ROSENBERG had formerly been an assistant to General HUGH JOHNSON of the NRA.

Mr. GEORGE MATRAY, Manager of the Hotel located at 10 Park Avenue, advised that Mrs. CHARLOTTE LEDERER of the above address, was the mother of ANNA M. ROSENBERG, who holds a high position in the Federal Government. He also said that Mrs. LEDERER was the mother of another daughter, Mrs. CLAIRE LANG, aka, Claire Von Arnold, a stylist at Franklin Simon Department Store. (NY File 100-13430).

SPECIAL INQUIRY

This is to advise that Mr. ASHLEY J. NICHOLAS Assistant Chief, Passport Division, State Department, reports that in the early 1930's the State Department investigated a passport fraud ring case in New York City which was known as the Rubin Robinson case. NICHOLAS stated his personal recollections concerning this matter was that the purpose of their activity was to fake United States passports for use by Soviet Agents aboard. NICHOLAS stated that he assisted in the investigation of this matter and came to the conclusion that communist party members constituted the group in this movement. NICHOLAS further reports that during the course of the investigation the name of LOUIS L. SCHWARTZ was connected with the case.

NICHOLAS stated that in a recent check of the Passport Division files it was determined that LOUIS LASZLO SCHWARTZ born June 14, 1905, Budapest, Hungary, applied for and was issued a passport on July 24, 1933, for travel to Germany, and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republic on a pleasure trip. SCHWARTZ'S passport file further reflects that on May 31, 1935, he requested an amendment to include ANNA SCHWARTZ, whom he identified as being born January 4, 1907, South Bend, Indiana, and listed as his wife. In his petition SWARTZ indicated his wife's maiden name as ANNA ROSENBERG and reported that they had been married April 5, 1935, at Greenwich, Connecticut. At the time of SWARTZ'S request and application for amendment of his passport, he indicated his wife's address as 207 West 11th Street, New York City. SWARTZ at that time further indicated that she had been previously married to CHANDRAKANT G. KULKARNI on May 4, 1928, at Toledo, Ohio. SWARTZ indicated that his wife's divorce from KULKARNI took place in June, 1930, at Ann Arbor, Michigan. An examination of the passport reflects that in 1933 SWARTZ listed his address as 42 Jane Street, New York City, c/o Dr. G. N. BROWN and listed his office address as One Union Square, New York. His profession was listed as a Dentist. The file further reflects that in connection with the passport issued in July, 1933, that SWARTZ made a trip to England, France, Germany, and Russia during the period August 11, 1933, to October 5, 1933. There was no indication of what trip SWARTZ might have made in connection with his request for amendment in May, 1935.

NICHOLAS stated that because of recent publicity given to ANNA M. ROSENBERG, he particularly noted the maiden name of SWARTZ in her file.

NICHOLS stated that based on the above information it would appear that SWARTZ'S wife was known as ANNA ROSENBERG from date of her divorce to the date of her marriage to SWARTZ. He also noted that the marriage had been performed in Greenwich Village, which would seem to indicate that SWARTZ'S wife prior to her marriage was located in the New York City area. NICHOLS further specified that it is very possible that SWARTZ'S wife was active in the Communist party circles and that it is further possible that inasmuch as she was known as ANNA ROSENBERG she might have been the person affiliated with the John Reed Club.

The photograph of ANNA SCHWARTZ, nee ROSENBERG was secured from the Passport Division. Copies are being furnished the Bureau and New York City. The Bureau will consider the advisability of having the enclosed photograph presented to CARL DE SOLA to determine if it is possible that there was a mistake in identity. [] said that she [] on Mrs. ROSENBERG and during the course of it, talked with her informally as was her custom. She remembered that Mrs. ROSENBERG made a remark which shocked her at the time because it was definitely derogatory to the United States Government. She said that the remark "got under my skin" to such a degree that she asked Mrs. ROSENBERG if she was born in the United States. Mrs. ROSENBERG told her that she was not born in this country and was actually born in Russia.

[] explained that she informed Mrs. ROSENBERG that she had five generations behind her in the United States and that she was very favorably impressed by the "Capitalistic controlled society" which existed in this country. Mrs. ROSENBERG then allegedly queried her as to whether or not she was disposed toward "more benefits for more of the people". To this question, [] said that she replied that it was only under the Capitalistic system that equal opportunities were available to all the people.

[] stated that she was quite certain that this professional acquaintance was identical with Mrs. ANNA M. ROSENBERG, who is presently under Congressional inquiry. She based her certitude on the fact that the professional acquaintance was connected with the Labor Department of the War Manpower Commission at the time, was familiar with Washington and New York City, and was of the same general physical description.

[] said that [] did not know about this incident. She and Mrs. ROSENBERG were alone at the time. She added that Dr. BECK could not furnish any further data other than to establish the date of contact and further verify identity. Dr. BECK was accordingly not interviewed.

[] of known reliability, reported to Special Agent LEO J. KENNEDY on January 25, 1945, in connection with another investigation being conducted by this office at the time, the following facts.

The informant said that SAM COLEMAN, Chairman, Niagara Frontier Communist Political Association, held a discussion with CLARA LESTER, a CPA functionary, at CPA Headquarters, 75½ West Chippewa Street. During this discussion, COLEMAN told LESTER that ANNA ROSENBERG would be in town on January 26, 1945 and would "raise hell" about the manpower situation. COLEMAN said that he was going to have MAITA JAMES, a CPA member, contact ANNA ROSENBERG about a job. He said that he realized that it was a "politically bad move" but he was so anxious to get rid of JAMES that he was willing to risk it. He said that he used to work for ANNA ROSENBERG and said that she was "terrific". He claimed that she once offered him a $10,000 a year job in Washington. He added that she made it a practice to surround herself with "bright young men". He said that ANNA ROSENBERG had a slight Hungarian accent. This information was received on January 25, 1945.

[] reported to Special Agent LEO J. KENNEDY, in connection with the aforementioned investigation, that on January 26, 1945, SAM COLEMAN met with MAIA JAMES at CPA Headquarters, 75½ West Chippewa Street, and told her that HUGH THOMPSON, President, Greater Buffalo Industrial Union Conference, CIO, was going to have ANNA ROSENBERG of the War Manpower Commission call her about 4:00 P.M. that day. He told JAMES that she should be at UE Headquarters to receive the call at that time. This information was received on June 26, 1945.

[] of known reliability, reported to Special Agent RALPH F. MILLER on January 27, 1945, in connection with another investigation being conducted by the Buffalo Office at the time, the following facts.

The informant stated that on January 27, 1945, SAM COLEMAN discussed with LEO LEVISON, UERMWA-CIO Organizer, a meeting of the various labor representatives from the Buffalo area which was held with ANNA ROSENBERG, Regional Director, War Manpower Commission. COLEMAN said that at this meeting, HUGH THOMPSON was made a fool of mainly by THOMPSON himself, with the able assistance of ANNA ROSENBERG and LYLE GORDINIER, UERMWA-CIO Organizer. COLEMAN said that THOMPSON was now angry, particularly with GORDINIER. COLEMAN explained that after two-and-a-half hours of bickering at the meeting, GORDINIER finally got up and stated his union position. COLEMAN stated it was true that GORDINIER was a little in advance of his union position but it was good and cleared the atmosphere. This information was received on January 27, 1945.

[] reported to Special Agent EDWARD R. NEAHER, in connection with another investigation being conducted by the Buffalo Office at the time, that on February 7, 1945, the staff of the Niagara Frontier CPA met at CPA Headquarters on that same date. The informant reported that SAM COLEMAN discussed the local manpower situation and mentioned the War Manpower Commission Conference held in Buffalo by ANNA ROSENBERG. COLEMAN stated that bungling on the manpower situation was responsible for the bottleneck in fuel which was closing other cities like Syracuse, New York. He referred to the May-Bailey Bill as a possible solution. COLEMAN said that not a single union in the United States was supporting it. He explained that the bill had the support of the CPA because:

- 1.) Of actual manpower shortage in heavy industry.
- 2.) It was a means of mobilizing people for victory.
- 3.) It solidified feelings between civilians and soldiers.

In connection with the recent War Manpower Commission Conference in Buffalo with ANNA ROSENBERG, COLEMAN said that a decision had been made to borrow workers from non-essential shops for temporary work in critical industries. COLEMAN stated that HUGH THOMPSON was present at this meeting and denounced employers for hoarding labor. He added that THOMPSON was supported by the AFL Representatives and the USA-CIO Representatives. COLEMAN stated that he was present at this meeting and was ashamed of labor's representation. He added that LYLE GORDINIER felt that way also. COLEMAN said that during the meeting,

ANNA ROSENBERG called on GORDINIER who took the correct position. He said that finally, THOMPSON and the others went along with the exception of one labor representative who noted "No", describing the situation as amounting to slavery. COLEMAN added that a compromise was reached for an investigation of labor hoarding. He explained that to date, out of fifteen examples cited by THOMPSON, three had blown up in his face.

COLEMAN stated that ANNA ROSENBERG recognized GORDINIER as a Communist because he was a UE Staff Representative. COLEMAN explained that the results indicated that "we" have to understand labor so that THOMPSON can't pull anything like this again. This information was received on February 7, 1945.

[] reported in connection with the aforementioned investigation, to Special Agent EDWARD R. NEAHER, on February 5, 1945, that SAM COLEMAN told him that when he had just finished Columbia University and was working as a Labor Relations man in 1938, ANNA ROSENBERG offered him a $10,000 a year job in some new agency as a Labor Relations man. COLEMAN stated that ROSENBERG had at the time one of her []

[] COLEMAN said that ANNA ROSENBERG made a practice of getting young men into key political positions in the government at the time. This information was received on February 5, 1945.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent EDWARD R. WHALEN:

Mr. ~~WALTER~~ SNOW, 25 Bain St., Willimantic, Connecticut, advised that he was a member of the JOHN REED CLUB at New York City in 1933 and 1934 and regularly attended meetings of the organization. He stated that there were a relatively small percentage of women who held membership in the club and added that the only female persons whom he could recall at meetings of the organization were LILLIAN ~~HELLMAN~~, who is currently engaged in radio work; JOY ~~DAVIDMAN~~ of the staff of "New Masses"; and FANYA ~~MARINOFF~~ (PH), who subsequently went to Hollywood as a script writer. He added that others held membership in the JOHN REED CLUB, but seldom appeared at meetings except for log-rolling purposes when a vote was to be taken on some topic on which the Communist element of the membership desired an affirmative vote. In these instances, SNOW stated members of the JOHN REED CLUB who were employed on the "Daily Worker", the "Morning Freiheit", the "New Masses" and similar publications, would appear at the meetings and vote in accordance with the Communist line. SNOW also advised that the JOHN REED CLUB was directed by an Executive Board. He related that WILLIAM ~~PHILLIPS~~, aka WALLACE ~~PHELPS~~, and PHILIP ~~RAHV~~, were both members of the Executive Board and editors of the Club publication "Partisan Review And Anvil". SNOW stated that PHILLIPS and RAHV subsequently broke with the CP and to the best of his knowledge are still associated with "Partisan Review", the offices of which are located at 1545 Broadway, New York City. He related that either or both of these individuals could furnish pertinent information concerning activities of the JOHN REED CLUB in the 1930's.

SNOW related also that one CLINTON ~~SIMPSON~~ was a member of the JOHN REED CLUB and an editor of "Partisan Review" in the 1930's. SIMPSON, according to SNOW, is currently employed by ALFRED KNOFF, INC., the New York Publishing house. SNOW had no knowledge as to whether SIMPSON had ever dissociated himself from the Communist Party and, therefore, was uncertain as to whether SIMPSON would be willing to furnish information concerning activities of the JOHN REED CLUB. Mr. SNOW stated that he knew of no person bearing the surname of ROSENBERG who held membership in the JOHN REED CLUB during the period in which SNOW held membership in 1933 and 1934. He stated that recent news photos of ANNA ROSENBERG recalled no one who was familiar to SNOW.

SNOW also stated that the name JAMES MAGRAW was completely unfamiliar to him and he knew of no person who bore that name.

MEMORANDUM TO MR. NICHOLS

ASAC Whelan called this morning and in your absence talked to the writer. He stated he wished to furnish you information which he has received during the course of the Anna Rosenberg investigation.

Mrs. Ralph De Toledano, wife of Ralph De Toldeano coauthor of the book "Seeds of Treason," has made the statement that Victor Laskey, Coauthor of the book "Seeds of Treason," had been making statements in New York to the effect the Bureau was out to get [redacted]. Laskey is also alleged to have stated that Fred Woltman gets information directly from you and that you were also out to get [redacted]. She is also alleged to have stated that her husband, Ralph De Toledano, has talked to Laskey concerning his statements but that he has not been deterred.

ASAC Whelan states he is not completely satisfied that the above is true and correct. He mentioned that she had attempted to engage the support of Morris Ernst to represent [redacted] and that Ernst was supposed to have called the Bureau and reported that Mrs. De Toledano has stated the information she had given to the Bureau had not been fully exploited. Whelan states that Mrs. De Toledano has denied telling Ernst this.

Whelan also advises that Mrs. De Toledano thinks [redacted] has been getting a raw deal.

Whelan advises that Laskey is on the staff of the New York World Telegram and that the World Telegram had taken a pro-Rosenberg policy, and that Fred Woltman has supported Rosenberg and claims she is in the middle of a smear campaign.

ASAC Whelan merely wanted to furnish you with this data as you might want to ask Victor Laskey concerning it. He stated if you do talk to Laskey that you should use your own discretion as to revealing where the information came from - that is, Mrs. Ralph De Toledano.

SUBJECT: ALLEGATION OF ALLEGED MEMBERSHIP OF ANNA

SPECIAL INQUIRY

Reference is made to the communication from Dr. MARJORIE SHEARON to the Bureau dated December 14, 1950.

This is to advise that Dr. SHEARON telephonically advised that a reliable newspaperwoman who is authority on the Far East and Eastern Europe received information from a friend of the newspaperwoman that a Hungarian Catholic Priest in Ohio reported that the present Hungarian Dictator MATEOS RAKOSI is a cousin of ANNA ROSENBERG. Dr. SHEARON, who would not identify her informant, reports this information has not been verified.

Dr. SHEARON also reported that she has a photostat furnished to her by a Congressman which reflects that on September 20, 1944, a testimonial was given to FERDINAND C. SMITH, whom she identified as a "Negro Communist associated with the Maritime Union", at the Hotel Commodore in New York City. She reports that included in a listing of the sponsors were ALBERT D. LASKER and FREDERICK V. FIELD whom she identified as the "Editor in the Amerasia Case." Dr. SHEARON further reports that in her testimony before the Senate Investigating Committee, Mrs. ROSENBERG admitted that MARY and ALBERT D. LASKER were clients of hers. Dr. SHEARON also reports the LASKERS are on the Board of Directors of the Committee for the Nations Health.

No action is being taken by this office concerning the above information.

GRANVILLE HICKS, admitted former Communist Party member, who defected from it in 1939, advised that he was a member of the John Reed Club, New York City, in the early 1930's. Hicks stated that at this time he was residing outside of New York City, so that his participation in John Reed Club activities was limited to attendance at approximately three meetings in 1932 and 1933, at each of which he was the speaker. GRANVILLE HICKS stated that he believes he met [redacted] on one occasion and is fairly well acquainted with [redacted]. He said he knew [redacted] by reputation and based on that knowledge considered him to be "a screwball".

Mr. HICKS said that he believed PHILLIP RAHV and WALLACE PHELPS, now going under the name of WALLACE PHILLIPS, both on the editorial board of the "Partisan Review", published at New York City, might know whether ANNA M. ROSENBERG had been a member of the John Reed Club in New York City. Mr. HICKS explained that the "Partisan Review" had started as the official publication of the John Reed Club and that RAHV and PHELPS (PHILLIPS) had been members of its editorial board from the outset. He remarked that RAHV and PHELPS (PHILLIPS) had broken with the Communist Party about the middle 1930's, according to his recollection, and had taken the "Partisan Review" away from the sponsorship of the John Reed Club. He said that it was still published as a "respectable high-brow" literary magazine of no known political tinge.

Mr. HICKS also advised that JOSEPH FREEMAN, who defected from the Communist Party at about the same time that he, HICKS, did, knows considerably more about Communist Party matters than he. He said that FREEMAN should know more about the John Reed Club than HICKS and believed that if he would furnish the information, it would be entirely reliable.

Mr. HICKS reviewed his file on the John Reed Club of New York City and stated that it had been located at the following addresses at these dates:

November 2, 1932 -- 63 West 15th Street, New York City
 February 28, 1933 -- 450 Sixth Avenue, New York City
 May 11, 1933 -- 583 Sixth Avenue, New York City (a temporary address due to the Club's eviction from 450 Sixth Avenue)

TITLE allegedly alleged ANNA M. ROSENBERG			CHARACTER OF CASE SPECIAL INQUIRY

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

JAMES T. JENNING, KCMO attorney, wrote letter to Senator McCARTHY, alleging that ANNA ROSENBERG is "very Red". On interview JENNING stated he has no first-hand information and was repeating statement of a woman Communist of KCMO. This woman, who requested identity be concealed, states she does not know ANNA ROSENBERG but expressed opinion to JENNING that she is a Communist on basis of vague recollections of hearing ANNA ROSENBERG's name mentioned "in Communistic circles in Chicago and Cleveland". Believes one HENRY H. KLEIN mentioned ANNA ROSENBERG in Detroit in 1944 as a Communist.

- RUC -

DETAILS:

By teletype dated December 11, 1950 from the Director to Kansas City, it was stated that it had been alleged that ANNA M. ROSENBERG, who is awaiting confirmation as Assistant Secretary of Defense, attended meetings of the John Reed Club of New York City in the middle thirties and was also a Communist Party member at that time. The teletype said further that an investigator in the employ of Senator McCARTHY furnished information that Senator McCARTHY received a letter from an attorney, JAMES T. JENNING, 1200 Oak, Kansas City, Missouri, in which JENNING allegedly stated that a Communist told him that "HARRIMAN is in charge of putting Reds in the Government" and further that ANNA ROSENBERG is "very Red".

JAMES T. JENNING, Attorney, 1200 Oak, Kansas City, Missouri, said he had written a letter to Senator McCARTHY recently in which he stated that a Communist in Kansas City had told him ANNA ROSENBERG is a "Red". Mr.

PROPERTY OF FBI—THIS CONFIDENTIAL REPORT AND ITS CONTENTS ARE LOANED TO YOU BY THE FBI AND ARE NOT TO BE DISTRIBUTED OUTSIDE OF AGENCY TO WHICH LOANED.

JENNING said he had no first-hand information in this regard and was merely forwarding information which he had received from a woman whose Communist card he has seen and who has been active in numerous Communist groups in Kansas City for a number of years. Mr. JENNING said as to the reliability of his informant that "sometimes you can believe her and sometimes you can't". He said she is somewhat unstable but in the instant case because of the gravity of the charge and the high position in the Government involved, he felt it his duty to forward this information where it would be investigated. Mr. JENNING furnished the name of his informant who will hereafter be designated as T-1, of unknown reliability, in view of her request that her name be withheld.

T-1 stated she has been a member of the Communist Party and has met with Communists in various cities of the United States. T-1 has never met or seen ANNA ROSENBERG and has no first-hand information about her. T-1 said she recalled, however, hearing the name mentioned in "Communist circles in Chicago and Cleveland" and the references to ANNA ROSENBERG were always favorable from the Communist point of view. It was on this basis that T-1 expressed the opinion to Mr. JENNING that ANNA ROSENBERG was a Communist.

T-1 could not remember the names of any Communists who had mentioned ANNA ROSENBERG but vaguely recalled that the name had been mentioned in Chicago in 1947 and probably in Cleveland in 1948. T-1 said she had been in these cities on business during these times and had been in contact with Communists, the names of whom she could not recall. T-1 said that in 1944, while in Detroit, Michigan at a meeting of a Michigan mothers' group, she recalls that one HENRY H. KLEIN, whom T-1 described as "a renegade Jew who recently has been writing for "Women's Voice", an anti-Semitic paper, published in Chicago", named ANNA ROSENBERG as "a Jewish Communist". T-1 could furnish no additional information.

REFERRED UPON COMPLETION TO OFFICE OF ORIGIN

T-1, mentioned in the body of the report, was formerly an informant of this office but was discontinued as her reliability was questioned. She continues to frequently contact this office by phone and occasionally supplies information of value. She has been, until recently, [redacted]

[redacted] which has been cited as being within the purview of Executive Order 9835 by the Attorney General. T-1 is very prone to make statements which are not completely factual and to make generalities which cannot be run down. She was very up-set with Mr. JENNING for having written the letter to Senator McCARTHY as he did, but said it was still her opinion that ANNA M. ROSENBERG is a Communist sympathizer.

T-1 recontacted this office by letter dated December 12, 1950, listing a number of individuals who would know whether or not ANNA ROSENBERG is a Communist. The following individuals were named:

JOHANNES STEELE

Ex-radio commentator and writer,
New York City

VERA BOUDIN, National Lawyers' Guild

DOROTHY BREWSTER, Columbia University

GENE WELLFISH, Columbia University

RICHARD CROSSCUP, Director of I.W.O.

FRANK HERBST, United Public Workers, Local #1

REV. WILLIAM H. MELLISH, Holy Trinity Church,
Brooklyn, New York

HALOIS (illegible) MOORHEAD, Business Agent

BERNARD SIEGEL, Executive Director, Local 19,

MRS. BETTY VERRI, International Union of Mine, Mill & Smelter Workers', Local 758

DOROTHY WILKES, J.P.F.O.

Mrs. BULAH WASHALL

MRS. MARY SILVER, Flatbush, Brooklyn, New York

T-1 was recontacted regarding her letter and she said she is not personally acquainted with any of the above individuals, has never discussed ANNA ROSENBERG with any of them, and furnished these names because it is her opinion these individuals might be able to supply information regarding ANNA ROSENBERG.

No leads were set out to have these individuals contacted because of the non-specific nature of the allegation that they might have information.

On December 13, 1950, T-1 again addressed a letter to this office indicating that she had been told by SID LAWRENCE, Director of the Jewish Community Relations Bureau, Kansas City, Missouri, that all of the Jewish agencies were sending telegrams to the Senate Committee headed by Senator RUSSELL urging the confirmation of ANNA M. ROSENBERG. Non-specific information has been received regarding SID LAWRENCE being a Communist but this has never been verified.

Leads were set out by teletype, dated December 11, 1950, to Cleveland and Chicago to contact confidential informants and for Chicago to contact HENRY H. KLEIN at "Women's Voice Magazine", Room 803, 537 S. Dearborn, Chicago, Illinois.

Re: KENNETH FEARING

KENNETH FEARING stated during the course of the interview with him that he had become a "fellow traveler" in 1933 and that prior to that time he had not been very interested in the meetings of the John Reed Club due to the fact that he was not interested in the politics discussed at all the meetings.

He said that he was acquainted with HAROLD and DAVID ROSENBERG and that he did not see how either of them could have failed to have been members of the John Reed Club. He said that in about 1936 HAROLD became a Trotskyite while DAVID was a Communist. DAVID, according to him, was a drunk and still is to the best of his knowledge.
